

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. It has an obligation under law, as I understand it, to provide balance in its political reporting. It's stations have the same obligation. I call upon the FCC to hold Sinclair and all broadcasters using public access to the rules of law. Show Sinclair that their broadcast licenses may not be renewed if they violate laws or regulations. Thank you.
